ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY
Sharda University Uzbekistan (SUUz) is the first fully independent private university established under the President's Decree in Andijan, Uzbekistan, and an offshore campus of Sharda University, India. At Sharda University Uzbekistan, our diverse faculty blends global expertise with local insight, inspiring students through world-class teaching, groundbreaking research, and real-world experience. The campus offers globally benchmarked programs in Applied English, Computer Science, Business, Economics, and Finance, supported by modern laboratories, smart classrooms, sports facilities, and innovation hubs. SUUz empowers students to become skilled, ethical, and visionary global leaders by offering distinctive academic and professional opportunities through its international faculty and strong industry partnerships.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE
The rapid expansion of digital technologies has transformed how language is used, researched, and taught, creating a dynamic, multimodal, and globalized landscape. From artificial intelligence, corpus linguistics, and natural language processing to online classrooms, social media discourse, and digital literacies, traditional pedagogical approaches are being redefined, presenting both opportunities and challenges for educators, researchers, and learners. This conference aims to provide a global platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to explore innovative approaches to language research enabled by digital technologies and examine emerging trends and best practices in digital and hybrid pedagogy by analyzing the impact of social media and AI on language use and teaching, and foster interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge sharing.

Resource Persons
Dr.Gulchehra Rahmanova Associate Professor, PhD, Andijan State Institute of Foreign Languages

Dr. Vahid Norouzi Larsari PhD in education, Faculty of Education, Charles University, Prague
